RE: Christmas news

Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to you to invite you to our Christmas celebrations at school. This term is zooming by, with lots of exciting developments across the school, the children and staff are working exceptionally hard to prepare for our performances. For every performance, we will be able to allow up to two adults for each child.

EYFS and Year 1 Nativity

EYFS and Year 1 will be coming together to perform the nativity to our families, tickets are £1 each and available to book through sQuid in the 'offers' section. There will be two performances:

- Wednesday 20th December at 9:00am
- Thursday 21st December at 2:15pm

Years 2-6 Carol Concert – Tuesday 19th December

The children will perform a carol concert on the back playground for our grown-ups. The performance will begin at 2:15pm on Tuesday 19th December. We will have hot chocolate and mince pies to keep us warm through the performance.

Christmas Dinner and Christmas Jumper Day - Wednesday 20th December

Your child will be able to have a traditional Christmas Dinner on Wednesday 20th December, on this date, children are invited to wear a Christmas jumper or something Christmassy.

Christmas Fayre - Thursday 14th December

After the success of our fayre in the summer, our Friends at Bramble are busy preparing a Christmas Fayre with lots of stalls for you to visit with your children. Our choir will be having their debut performance during the fayre too, please join us to celebrate this first for Bramble.

We have even managed to get a special guest to come from the North Pole visit the children, just in time for Christmas!

Yours faithfully

P. M. Theodosiou
